

Camp to Be Purchased for Handicapped

$10,000 Starts Campaign

A beginning fund of $10,000 was provided at noon Wednesday to the Palm Springs Foundation for Mentally Retarded Children, for the first increment in an estimated $50,000 fund to begin purchase and operation of the Harlee Ranch at Poppet Flats in the San Jacinto mountains as a summer camp for mentally retarded and physically handicapped children.

The money was turned over to J. M. McFadden, president of the Foundation, in $5,000 from Mrs. Frankie J. Spitz and $5,000 from Mr. and Mrs. Carl I. Leserman. The initial money was supplied on a loan basis to permit excrow proceedings on the property today, the Foundation announced.

AN ADDITIONAL $40,000 is to be raised in March, to provide funds for the first year payment on the property, and the first year operation.

The Harlee Ranch, currently owned by Harold Feldman and Lionel I. Liberman, contains 12.5 acres of grounds, 14 buildings and a 22 by 60 foot heated and filtered swimming pool. The improvements to be completed in the near future, will have facilities for approximately 33 physically handicapped children. A slightly greater number of mentally retarded children may be served there.

FELDMAN AND Liberman, operators of physical therapy facilities in the San Fernando Valley, will aid in the first year operations with recruitment of operating, staff supply function, and staff supervision, McFadden announced.

Operation of the camp for mentally retarded and physically handicapped youngsters will begin this summer, McFadden said. A counselor will be provided for each 10 children, plus other staff members, to give a full program of recreation and handicraft instruction to the campers.

THE FOUNDATION is currently seeking additional listings of retarded children with the Palm Springs Unified School District, the Foundation announced. The current list of reportedly retarded youngsters known to the group has been turned over to the school district psychologist this week.

Other Foundation plans call for action this year to raise funds for a facility in Palm Springs for retarded children. The Foundation plans a day care, 24 hour care, recreation, handicraft and workshop operation here, with classrooms available for academic work.

Snowstorm Barrels Into Great Plains

Meets Rain Cover Spread Across 22 Eastern States

By United Press International
A blinding snowstorm barreled down east slopes of the Rockies into the upper Great Plains today where it met a rain cover across 22 eastern states.

In the South, the Weather Bureau at Montgomery, Ala., said floodwaters from swollen creeks and overtaxed sewers were approaching the "critical stage," and Louisiana's flood threat turned to the gorged Bogue Lusa Creek north of New Orleans.

RAIN AND SNOW were divided along a giant cold front that sliced out of eastern Canada across Lake Huron into northern Illinois. Fog along the front contributed to two fatal plane crashes at Rockford, Ill., and Davenport, Iowa.

The cold front leveled off in Kansas and Utah north of balmy weather in the Southwest. Stiff winds lifted Los Angeles' smog and lifeguards worked overtime at crowded southern California beaches.

THE PACIFIC Northwest enjoyed its first clear coastal weather in days. The mercury rose to 62 at Seattle and little rain was in sight west of Idaho.

The Weather Bureau foresaw little relief from eastern rains that extended from Florida west into the Mississippi Valley and north through New York state.

Resignation of Hugh Givens to Be Considered

The Palm Springs Unified School District board will consider the resignation of district music supervisor Hugh Givens during the regular meeting beginning at 7:30 p.m. today in the High School music room.

Givens, who joined the district in 1955, was rated by school administrators and district teachers as an exceptionally talented music teacher and supervisor. His resignation, according to the agenda to be presented to board members tonight, was for "financial reasons," effective the end of the current semester.

The nucleus of the group will be experienced workers from previous political campaigns and from both political parties. They have volunteered their services, Boyd said, without reference to party affiliation in this non-partisan issue.

BOYD DEDICATES FRONTAGE ROAD

PALM DESERT—Scores of residents in this community turned out yesterday to watch Bill "Hopalong Cassidy" Boyd blast a ribbon in two with his six-shooters as Palm Desert Drive, newly completed frontage road, was dedicated.

Participating in the ceremonies were Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce President Dick Coffin, Clifford W. Henderson, developer of Palm Desert, Riverside County Supervisor George Berkey and County Road Director A. C. Kieth.

FOR THE DOZENS of Palm Desert residents who had worked so long to secure completion of the road which runs parallel to Highway 111 on the south side, it was a "dream come true," according to Coffin.

In the gay and spontaneous parade were antique cars, notably Cliff Henderson's Buick and horse drawn wagons carrying members of the Palm Desert Players in gay costumes.

Also in the line of march were the Falcon Band from Desert Sun School of Idyllwild, units of the Palm Desert Fire Station manned by Forestry and County firemen, as well as members of the volunteer crew serving Palm Desert. Numerous horsemen who had previously ridden in the Date Festival parade at Indio, made the long horseback trek to join the Palm Desert show.

"HOPALONG" HAD little difficulty cutting the dedicatory ribbon with a double blast of '45s. He remarked over the public address system, that he "just wanted all you folks to see where old TV cowboys wind up — I finished off all the bad guys on television, and here I am now — shooting blanks."

Following the ceremonies, the crowd of several hundred enjoyed refreshments consisting of cakes, cookies and soft drinks which were provided by the Retail Merchants Association; the Hotel and Apartment Owners and the Board of Realtors of Palm Desert.

AT COMMUNITY FORUM

British Colonial Leader to Speak

One of Britain's distinguished colonial administrators comes to this community at 8 p.m., March 1, when Sir Charles Arden-Clarke addresses the Community Forum at the Jewish Community Center.

With a background of 40 years of service in Africa for the British Colonial and Commonwealth Relations Office, Sir Charles has opinions on current events there that are based on long personal observation.

FOLLOWING MILITARY service in World War I in France and in the army of occupation in Germany, Sir Charles joined the Colonial Service and was posted in Northern Nigeria. For 16 years, he served in various administrative posts throughout Nigeria bringing "peace, order and good government" to primitive tribes, naked and armed with bows and poisoned arrows. Life in the bush for him and his young wife was one long series of adventures in those years.

Western Is Not Included

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy today announced the end of the six-day-old flight engineers strike and forecast that passenger traffic would be resumed tonight.

Kennedy told reporters that the engineers union, the airline pilots union and five major airlines have agreed to a plan advanced by Labor Secretary Arthur J. Goldberg.

IT CALLED FOR resuming operations while a presidential commission investigates the dispute between the engineers and the carriers.

Western Airlines, which fired its 130 engineers, was not included in the agreement. Kennedy explained that this carrier was in a special category to be covered in another announcement shortly from Goldberg.

WHITE HOUSE sources reported earlier that Kennedy had been told that the strike could be solved if Western agreed to rehire 130 dismissed engineers.

Western dismissed the engineers two days ago and said they would be replaced with pilots as soon as these men were trained in the engineers' duties.

THE OTHER FIVE airlines have agreed to resume operations without changing the job status of the engineers while a presidential commission undertakes a study of the dispute. It was this guarantee that had been scheduled to expire at noon but was extended and led to Kennedy's announcement.

Unemployed Bill Gets Approval

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Ways and Means Committee today approved the first part of President Kennedy's emergency measures to help the nation's unemployed, a proposal to extend unemployment compensation benefits.

him to other parts of the world and in 1949 Sir Charles returned to Africa to become the governor and commander-in-chief of the Gold Coast territory. In line with traditional British colonial policy, he guided the 4-million people of that country toward self-government, a goal which was achieved eight years later when the new nation of Ghana was born. During the transition period, Sir Charles remained on for a year as the first governor - general of Ghana before retiring in 1957.

ARDEN - CLARKE, who makes his home in East Anglia, was knighted in 1946 and granted a Knight Grand Cross in 1952 for his significant contribution to Britain's colonial policies.

Tickets for the lecture are available at the office of the Jewish Community Center, 332 West Alejo Road, 325-2053. Tickets may also be obtained at Grone's Shoe Store, 184 North Palm Canyon Drive.

FOR VETERANS, CHURCHES

Tax Exemption Deadlines Told

Veterans and churches eligible for property tax exemptions today were reminded by County Assessor Eric L. Waite that they may file application from Monday, March 6, through Monday, May 1. This also applies to members of the armed forces still in service and who are legal residents of the State of California.

Claimants in the Palm Springs area may file their applications at the assessor's office, 400 north Belardo Road, Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

VETERANS, IN ORDER to qualify for the exemption of $1,000 assessed valuation, must (a) be a legal resident of the State of California; (b) must have served with the armed forces during a period of wartime; (c) must have been honorably discharged; (d) the veteran or spouse must have been the recorded owner of real property as of noon, March 6, Waite said. Exemptions are not allowed on real property not recorded in the office of the County Recorder on or before noon on the first Monday in March.

EXEMPTIONS ARE allowed to veterans who own, separately, taxable and non-taxable property, wherever located, valued at up to $5,000, and on similar property held jointly with spouse valued at up to $10,000. According to Waite the assessed value of taxable real and personal property, and the market value of non-taxable property, as of the first Monday in March, are used to determine the $5,000 and $10,000 limitations.

Waite also stressed that churches are allowed exemption only on those portions of their property used exclusively for religious worship purposes, and necessary parking. He added that all claimants for exemption, including churches, must file application every year.

Teachers Quiz Slated for Week

The Palm Springs Unified School District will hold two study sessions this week on teacher interviewing.

"The techniques of interviewing prospective applicants is a significant adjunct to procuring good teachers," Dr. Dwight Twist, superintendent, said. During the study sessions, Dr. Arthur King, Claremont graduate school, and Dr. Leonard Grindstaff, assistant superintendent of Riverside county schools, will discuss and present demonstrations of interview methods. An actual interview with an applicant will be part of the demonstration.

IKE, ANGELS COMMEND TEEN ANGELS

Dwight D. Eisenhower sent greetings and best wishes to all persons attending the Teen Angels benefit dinner for Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation, pointing out that "the medical needs of children touch the hearts of all of us and it is satisfying to know about hospitals such as Angel View which are meeting these needs."

The former President, vacationing at Eldorado, added: "The Teen Angels' Auxiliary is contributing greatly to the advancement of child care and treatment. I am proud that young Americans are devoting so much of their time and energy to this worthy cause."

Another telegram received at the benefit dinner at the Riviera Hotel came from the Los Angeles Angels, saying: "Our heartiest congratulations to your fine group of Teen Angels for the great work you are doing to help the AVCCF. From your big brother—The Los Angeles Angels of the American League."

School Youngsters Fete Washington

Palm Springs Unified School District youngsters had Wednesday off to celebrate the birthday of the nation's first President.

Mrs. Marjorie Akiens second graders in Katherine Finchy school drew pictures illustrating the life of "The Father of Our Country," and wrote a capsule report:

"George Washington was our first President. He was an Army general, too. He was a good man. The people liked Washington. We celebrate his birthday. It is February 22."

MRS. JUDITH Basehore, Cathedral City first grade teacher, found one moppet she just hasn't had the heart to correct on pronunciation of her name. The entranced youngster, caught in the Western spirit, calls her Mrs. Bay Horse.

The old school spirit still shines, Mrs. Basehore reported. Pupil Billy Fowler reported his father would give him a dollar for every 1 on his report card. "To get a 1, who would have to be perfect or almost a genius," Mrs. Basehore explained. After class, little Peggy Rodman, clutching her report card, asked "What's a genius?"

PALM SPRINGS Optimists will hold the local club speech contest for school boys under 16 years of age during a luncheon meeting at the Tennis Club Mar. 8. Contestants will include freshman Wayne Walker, 1960 winner.

Boys will speak without notes on "The Ingredient for True Leadership," with a minimum of four minutes, maximum of five minutes. Local winner will compete in the Zone 21 contest in San Bernardino, could go to the national contest in Las Vegas to compete in the $1,000 scholarship or $500 runner-up scholarship contest.

THE 225 SEVENTH and eighth grade girls in Nellie N. Coffman school are in the new Homemaking class quarters. Miss Arlene Lutz' beginners are learning basic sewing skills, and the advanced classes are working on dresses from commercial patterns.

Mrs. Eleanor Hall's students are beginning cooking study.

A ONE - SEMESTER college level course in World History is being taught at Palm Springs High School, for seniors or advanced students.

Chester McCarthy, 1960-1 senior advisor and originator of the course, planned the work as preparation for college level material. Lectures and films are shown, with personal notes required, and outside work facilities provided in a special room. Five absences or more trim the grade a full point. Tentative plans call for expanding the course to a full year.

MRS. JEAN BENEDICT'S Agua Caliente second graders had Palm Springs police officer Richard Marshall to give them a first hand report on the work of a traffic motorcycle officer.

'CRASH PROGRAM' TO HIT JUVENILES

WASHINGTON (U) — Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., today proposed a five-year, $47 million "crash program" to combat juvenile delinquency throughout the nation.

Javits announced he was introducing the legislation with Sen. Jennings Randolph, D-W. Va., as co-sponsor. Javits offered a similar bill last year but it died in the House.

IN A STATEMENT, Javits said "youth crime is continuing to rise at an alarming rate" and "unless an imaginative effort is made now to combat it, the crime picture will grow more bleak when these young offenders become hardened criminals."

Javits said his program would cost an estimated $7 million the first year and $10 million for each of the following four years.

THE PROPOSED program would:

— Help states set up and operate juvenile delinquency control programs by offering federal funds on a matching basis.

— Provide grants or fellowships to cities, colleges, etc., for training of social workers specializing in youth problems.

— Provide federal grants on a matching basis to states and non-profit institutions for research on behavior problems and developing new techniques for dealing with them.

Buying Airport Just Good Business

If you are being urged to vote and to vote "Yes" on the Airport Bond issue March 14, you have a right to know about the dollars involved—and to know them in detail.

You have been told repeatedly that the airport acquisition involves a bond issue of some $3 million for the purchase of some 594 acres of Tribal land; that the purchase is necessary now because of stipulations by the Federal government and the Indians involved; that the least penalty delay would impose would be separate negotiations with each of the 60 individual Indians involved; and that the price, approximately $5,000 an acre, is not only the most reasonable but undoubtedly would go up at later and individual negotiations.

You have a right to know more.

What about income?

The city's income at present from its airport is $8,000 a year, according to city figures. This comes from a percentage of the lease with the private operators of the airport. From this must come the cost of maintenance—all borne by the city.

The net profit of the leaseholders can only be estimated but is judged to be around $25,000 a year, based on the gross dollar volume.

The Airport Executive Committee and the City Council each has pledged that these net revenues will only be used for bond interest and retirement.

Upon the purchase of the Indian lands involved, the city expects to receive about $1 million in assistance money from the Federal government. It is planned to use this money for the purchase of other necessary land which must be bought from Indians who have individual allotments. Again, 54 per cent of this money will be returned by the government, making a net Federal outlay to the city of $540,000.

That will be used for bond interest and retirement.

But these allocations, while 99 per cent assured, still have that one per cent of possible error. There is an even more assured source of income to be applied against the bonds. That is the sale of land which, while not needed for airport operation, still must be purchased in this package deal.

Dudley Steele, California tax authority, member of the county airport commission and long time operator of Lockheed air terminal in Los Angeles, has analyzed this income potential from the mass of figures supplied by the city and the Airport Bond Executive Committee.

His figures not only are authoritative—they look good!

Using conservative estimates throughout, Steele's analysis shows, for example, that the top tax rate would not be the 26 cents quoted but only 23.3 cents. This would drop sharply to just .053 cents the third year. By the fourth year, again with conservative figures, not only could the tax be eliminated but an actual profit showed.

This is having your cake and eating it, too. Or, as the insurance people are so fond of saying, "It doesn't cost, it pays."

It's another reason The Desert Sun joins with hundreds of community leaders and men and women in all walks of life in urging you to vote "Yes" March 14.

'Ya Mean I Can't Have a Crutch for This Side?'

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

Last week we sang
The camels are coming,
Hurray, Hurray.
This week we sing
The Angeles are coming,
Ole, Ole.

Remember, "ole" is pronounced "o-lay."

Tomorrow comes to pass something which has been discussed here ever since the Polo Grounds were built.
Spring training for a Major League baseball team.

TOP BRASS and non-playing hands of the new Los Angeles American League baseball club, are here.

The rest of them, the high-salaried athletes who will strain and sweat, hitting the dirt to dodge bean balls or get two bases on a blooper, will be here tomorrow.

They'll be housed in wall-to-wall carpeted bungalows at the Desert Inn.

WHICH IS A LOT more comfy than their fellow Los Angeles team, the National League Dodgers, who'll be dodging driplets under leaky roofs at Vero Beach, Fla.

The annual unraveling of muscles kinked by idleness since last October, is under way in the land.

And Palm Springs, for the first time, joins in Big Time spring training which started this week.

HARRY VOELKER, executive director of the Desert Angels Committee, that group of civic-minded desert area residents which did the hard work to bring the Angels here, told me this week that the first exhibition games March 11 and 12 against the Chicago Cubs will be sell-outs.

"Probably have 'em standing," he said.

But Harry had a slight wonderment.

HE SAID that he had been receiving many out-of-town requests for blocks of tickets for various games.

"Many fraternal organizations, clubs and individuals have ordered tickets for the Polo Grounds games. They come from many southland points. The interest is high."

HOWEVER, the very people who will benefit most by these extra crowds here, seem to be dragging their feet, he added.
"I think that the hotels and restaurants who will make the most from the extra influx, should speed up their help to make this thing a real success."

HIS IDEA was that those who will profit the most could make a good will gesture by buying a small block of tickets for each game and give them, or sell them, to their guests.

"This is a big thing for Palm Springs and the desert area," he said. "We'll be in headlines and datelines across the nation."

VOELKER SAID success of the program is virtually assured but he'd like to see a little more solid support at home to make it a howling success.

Sincerely yours,

Letha Cote

STAN DELAPLANE:

Your Lucky Stars

In rambling, gambling Las Vegas, Nev., even the super-markets keep a row of slot machines for the customers.

"Vegas," said a Strip gambler, "is like one of the old Texas Guinan shows. Rhinestone G-strings and plenty of electricity."

From the air at night, the town glitters like a scatter of jewels on the desert floor.

THIS IS FABULOUS Town, U. S. A. A dozen Sultan's palaces, with built-in chorus lines in harem pants and swimming pools of Oriental splendor.

Each one with an enormous show where a star performer draws $50,000 a week. ("It don't take much more to go first-class than it does mediocre," said a philosophical hotel operator.)

For this elegant life, the happy visitor (3 million a year)—pays $12 for his room and $4.75 for his dinner with a view of the shapeliest.

"IT WILL BRING TEARS to your eyes to learn how much our kitchens lose each month," said Mr. Ben Goffstein.

Mr. Goffstein runs the plush Riviera and has been 15 years on the Strip. As his contribution to the cultural side of this oasis, Mr. Goffstein imports entire Broadway shows.

"WE OPERATORS do not get much credit," said Mr. Goffstein plaintively. "Right now I am playing in my house, 'La Plume de ma Tante.' Right off Broadway. I am not paying them off in licorice sticks, believe me."

"Everyone thinks we are millionaires. Let me tell you, you don't see what it costs to run this operation."

"LOOK, JUST LOOK at that rug. Every yard cost $40. And who cares? I'm glad you asked. Nobody. That's who. They grind cigars into it. Mad because they lose a quarter in the slot machine."

I asked Mr. Goffstein if he cared to make any predictions for the town.

"I was bullish when I came here. I'm bullish now," he said. "I am the oldest, continuous operator on Las Vegas Boulevard. We called it Highway 91 when I came here and it was a strip of asphalt on the desert."

"EVERYBODY SAID the bubble would burst. Uh, uh. No. Negative. It's better now and getting better every day."

"Because of the high-rollers at the tables, Ben?"

"No, sir," said Mr. Goffstein, "the high-rollers aren't around anymore. Conventions. That's what we get. We give them everything for nothing—convention halls, shows, private rooms, the works."

"OUR CONVENTION salesmen couldn't sell beans. He's an order taker. They stand in line to see him."

"Right now, across the street there's the biggest doctors' convention in the world," said Mr. Goffstein. "All female specialists. They are standing in rows to get into 'Le Lido de Paris'. One of the most stripped shows on The Strip. Crazy, isn't it?"

THE GOLDEN casinos stay open 24 hours. To encourage the weary during the early morning hours, many of them serve a princely breakfast at the gaming tables, absolutely free.

A sort of chronic gambling fever seems to raise the temperature of the whole town. And drugstores, markets and the airport keep a bank of slot machines on the premises for those taken suddenly with a handful of hot, loose change.

"Even my own dealers," said Mr. Goffstein. "They can't play here. But when they get off they go across the street and play. I had a busboy knocked over the Stardust last week for ten thou. And I haven't seen him since."

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I have two very fine well-established gentlemen in love with me, but I cannot for the life of me make up my mind which one I want. Each knows about the other and have both been so patient with me I am even more in doubt than ever. If only one would give up so I wouldn't have this decision to make.

I feel like such a fool, Abby, telling them to give me more time. I am 29 years old and should know what I want. When I think I want one, my heart hurts so for the other. I have changed my mind a dozen times back and forth. Is it possible to be in love with two men? I think that's my trouble.

ALL MIXED UP

DEAR MIXED: You are infatuated, grateful, flattered and confused, but you aren't in love with either man. A woman "in love" isn't tortured by indecision. She KNOWS!

DEAR ABBY: When eating seafood, is it proper to eat the toast underneath the seafood? I have been told the toast is put there only to absorb the steam and moisture and is not meant to be eaten. It was delicious.

IN DOUBT

DEAR IN: You may eat anything served to you that is edible. When in doubt, watch your hostess. I know a man who actually cut up and ate the lace paper dolly on his dessert plate. He thought it was "tough meringue."

DEAR ABBY: I am a boy who is 14. I take piano lessons and want to be a fashion designer. To most boys I am an ideal sissy. On the bus going home from school they pester me and try to pick a fight. Abby, I don't want to fight although I think I could knock their stupid blocks off. Don't tell me to ignore them. It won't do any good.

HATES TO FIGHT

DEAR HATES: Take a few boxing lessons. Even if you never raise your fists in anger it will be good for your self-confidence to know you can defend yourself if you ever have to.

DEAR ABBY: You said in your column that smokers were the most selfish people in the world. I think you're wrong. Dog-owners are.

Palm Springs volunteers quickly responded to the alarm, and moved everything possible from the burning buildings. They lifted an adjoining bungalow and carried it 50 feet to break the flames, and saved a group of cottages scattered along the Indian Avenue front. Damage was set at more than $35,000.

Which word is older, Gin or Gordon's?

"Gin" came into the language around 1700 by way of the French "genièvre," meaning juniper. "Gordon's" comes from Alexander Gordon, the genius whose secret gin formula set Londoners agog in 1769.

The Gordon's you drink today harks back to this self-same formula. It's still secret, and as far as the people at Gordon's are concerned, that is as it should be, for in nearly two centuries no other gin has duplicated Gordon's distinctive dryness and flavour. Are you wondering if it's the world's biggest seller? It is. Indeed, to most people the words "gin" and "Gordon's" are by now synonymous.

UCR Readies Artist Series In Riverside

Varied Program
To Begin Feb. 27
With Dance Troupe

RIVERSIDE—Presenting a diversified series of events which will include a modern dance concert, a pianist, a West German choral group, a Collegium Musicum and a chamber group, UCR's Committee on Drama, Lectures and Music will present its first artists' series during the coming spring semester, according to Donald G. Daviau, chairman.

Jose Limon and his internationally acclaimed dance company will head the program with a concert on February 27 in the gym.

ON MARCH 20, Robert Haag pianist, who was presented at UCR last spring, returns to perform an all-Beethoven recital. Haag, on the music faculty at El Camino College, was warmly received in his previous appearance here.

Five performers on ancient instruments—two of them also singers—make up the Collegium Musicum of the University of Illinois, which will appear on April 4, in a program of early and unusual music, directed by George Hunter.

The first American tour of the fifty-voice Westhalian Kantorei, sponsored by the West German Government, will include UCR on its itinerary on April 18, with choral and instrumental performance again combined, this time in a program of sacred and secular music. This group is under the direction of one of Germany's foremost choral conductors, Wilhelm Ehmann.

THE SEASON WILL conclude with chamber music by the Amati String Quartet, with a clarinetist assisting as guest artist, in a concert on May 8.

Season tickets are available by mail for $6 from the Drama, Lectures and Music office at UCR, a 25% reduction over single ticket cost, or may be obtained in person at that office in the new Administration building.

Other arts events will be presented on the Intercampus Arts Exchange program, by touring groups from Los Angeles and Santa Barbara campuses of the University, some of them as noon programs. Among these will be chamber singers, brass choir and woodwind quintet, all from Santa Barbara; and a play, "The Just Assassins" by Albert Camus, from UCLA. Dates and times of these events will be announced later.

AT CHEZ ANTHONY ROOM

Sue Evans Has Looks, Talent

Pretty enough to be able to simply stand there and get paid, Sue Evans combines that facet with an overwhelming musicianship to place her front - rank in the current Village entertainment scene.

Now holding down star spotlight — along with Arthur Blake and Al Anthony — in the Chez Anthony Room of La Paz Hotel, Sue is even more of an enigma by virtue of the fact that she not only sings superbly but fashions portions of her own background with harp attacks that make you wonder if she didn't have some hand in the invention of the instrument.

A TYPICAL SET with Sue will include some virtuoso exhibitions on the harp, a smattering of song, and a direct audience contact that leaves ringers limp and makes casual observers wonder how she places the mirrors.

She's liable to start with an up tempo harp selection that virtually yanks you out of your chair. By the time you've convinced yourself that she does it with pre-recorded tape, she switches to ballad form and mixes sweet innocence with sly sultriness on a tune such as, say, "Don't Take Your Love From Me."

On the night your reviewer caught her, she also delivered a harp version of "I Got Rhythm" that made the tune title seem an understatement. She ripped through an introduction that sent harp figures cascading through out the Chez Anthony Room, then shook her right hand in mock pain and winked at the crowd.

THREE OTHER FACETS of the Evans musicianship were in easy view as she drew her "orchestra" — into a cleverly contrived "History of Rock and Roll." It was professionally done and in perfect good taste throughout. She worked her ringside audience with a bit of special material titled "And Then Some" in which she completely unraveled one young man. The third item consisted of a musical evaluation of Jimmy

Van Heusen, long enough to have been tedious but saved from that status by the very compelling, very charming manner in which Miss Evans delivers it. (If Jimmy hasn't seen Sue do it, he's got a great treat in store for him.)

In a town that has existed too long on pianobars and Latin combos, Sue Evans provides a breath of freshness and unusually intriguing personality with a delightful musical concept. Teamed with Blake, Anthony and the rest of the Chez Anthony troupe, it makes the room a solid contender for the club - going crowd.

Goldsteins Host Dinner

Chicago manufacturer, George Goldstein and his wife Bea, hosted the second in a series of housewarming parties in their 12th green Tamarisk Country Club home, Sunday evening.

Guests gathered in the living room, paneled in stained Philippine mahogany, and an adjoining sitting room which has a lanai effect with one wall being done in tropical greenery. A bar was set up poolside and the Safari Room's Chuck Travis underscored the frivolity with musical themes.

The home's elegant decor was matched by hors d'oeuvres and a sit-down dinner designed to satisfy a gourmet. Florence Lowell outdid herself with a variety of appetite teasers including stuffed shrimp and mushrooms, bite-sized hot dogs rolled in pastry dough and poppy seeds, cheese blintzes and salmon displayed in its natural shape.

The livingroom was cleared of all but guests while banquet tables were set up and folding, gold and white linen-look panels closed off the picture window facing the pool. The gold clothed tables were centered with greens and sparkling gold candles.

The menu included Beef Wellington (New York strip wrapped in pastry dough), an Hawaiian salad (fresh fruits and coconut with sour cream dressing) and something wonderful done to eggplant. A dessert of lime and lemon sherbet blended with the decor.

Among the guests were Messrs. and Mmes. George Alexander, Ernest Alschuler, Samuel Banowitz, Gummo Marx, Robert Blythe, Leon Baker, Charles Clare, Frank De Goff, Allan Emil, Morris Ebin, Meyer Gensberg, A. Paul Holleb, Fillmore Horwich, Phillip Herbert, Abe Levin, Jerome Robinson, Jack Spiegel, Ben Smith, Daniel Wells and Mrs. and Mrs. Max Cutler, Sam Hart and Julius Kaplan. And Mmes. Mrs. Spargur Given Life Membership

Mrs. John Spargur was the recipient of the P-TA life membership and pin when Katherine Finch P-TA held its annual Founders Day program. A native Californian, Mrs. Spargur came to Palm Springs in 1937 where she attended Frances Stevens School and went on to Palm Springs High and Riverside Junior College. She has been essay chairman for the VFW Americanism essays for the past ten years, a Cub Scout Den Mother for two years, Pack Mother for one and one-half years, P-TA board member for five years and now is president of Katherine Finch P-TA. Among her other activities, she teaches Sunday School at the Community Church, is an officer in Eastern Star, president of the local VFW Auxiliary and junior past president of the District VFW Auxiliary.

Mrs. Spargur lit the two candles on Founder's Day cake (one representing the past, and one the future) after Mrs. Armond Moss awarded her the pin.

Following the pinning, John Mount, principal, gave a report on "Foreign Language in Elementary Schools." He has just returned from the California State Department of Education Conference in Pasadena.

Refreshments were served following the meeting.

Pen Women Hear Reports

Workshop activities were postponed when the Palm Springs Branch of the National League of American Pen Women met at Palm Desert's Firecliff Lodge for luncheon and a business meeting. As the president, Majory Adams Darling was unable to attend, the meeting was hostessed and led by vice president, Clara Spannagel.

Reports were made on work done in research, coaching and play production, script writing and poetry and story writing. Following the brief reports from local Pen Women, two prospective members, Mrs. Randall Henderson and Mrs. Helen Abernathy, told of their work in sculpture and the Civic Foundation, respectively. The two were unanimously approved as

191 S. Palm Canyon FA5-2412 Just South of Bullocks

Painting has been of epidemic proportions on the desert this past year or so... with a paint-smearing smock having a place in many a socialite's wardrobe... so a beaux arts type ball becomes a natural for the Desert Circus Big Top... It's the costumes that will make this a colorful event... and rumors are already leaking out of some spectacular plans... Ball chairman Nancy Holmes... who's a dynamic personality and here there and everywhere as she spins the Ball plans into shape... expects to be on the verge of exhaustion that night (March 3) and she will be wearing a fabulous silvery mermaid costume with a five-foot tail... This is the one Bea Lillie wore in "Inside U.S.A."... and Nancy did it once before at the Dallas Beaux Arts...

This means... Nancy can't dance that night... she can't run around worrying over last minute details... She can only look glamorous... with a sea weed headdress and a silvery under-sea costume... while she recuperates after weeks of hectic preparation...

Inc close competition for costume honors... I hear Gussie "Lace Pants" Moran is readying a lace - pants - and - western outfit... Mrs. Wilbur Clarke... wife of the High Sheriff... is coming as a spectacular silver and shocking pink butterfly... Richard Strauss (the clever young artist) is designing a costume for Edna Rothbart... and Bud and Vic Graves are certain to come up with something as unusual as that red - and - white Egyptian costume that was the most exciting thing at the George Barretts' Oriental Party two years ago...

Janet Leigh... who will reign as Queen of Desert Circus... is certain to be Queen of the Ball too... In keeping with the Silver motif... she will be wearing a bugle-headed silver gown... An Edith Head original... it took four months to make... and made its debut at an Academy Awards dinner...

She'll wear a crown with it... as she presides at the table which she and husband Tony Curtis have already reserved for the Ball... There couldn't have been a happier selection for Desert Circus Queen... as the Curtises own a home here in Caballeros Estates... Janet Leigh will also be one of the costume judges... along with High Sheriff Wilbur Clarke, Grand Marshall Knute Crumley of Reno, Lt. Governor Rex Bell of Nevada, and Emcee Frank Bogert... Awards will be made for the most beautiful the most original and the most dangerous costumes at the Ball... with no definition offered for the third category...

If you are wondering what to wear to the Ball... I have two messages for you... Costumes are being brought down from Western... and will be in the lobby shop at El Mirador... starting Monday... Mrs. Ed Barrett... who is in charge of costumes... says they will be in all sizes... For those who are not costume minded... Jeanie also says... that western will be acceptable... or even black tie...

Encountered Janice Doud someplace this weekend... and she tells me that Lucy and Ed Eisenhower (he's the General's brother) of Tacoma are arriving March 1 for a month's stay at Tierra del Sol... so the brothers can get in some golfing together on desert courses... Lucy was here last winter for a visit and made many friends here at that time...

The Charles Eckstroms... also of Tacoma... are coming south too... They will spend a week at The Cloisters... before joining the Ed Eisenhowers at Tierra del Sol...

A new attraction out at North Shore Beach & Yacht Club at Salton Sea... Ginny Simms and the Ginny Simms Combo are opening tomorrow night... and are booked for weekends in the Commodore Room... Ginny will be singing every Friday and Saturday night... with a surprise big name guest each time... and will also be on the Sunday "Jam with Brunch" program...

This announcement is sure to inspire another of those bus parties to Salton Sea... like the Leys and the Horners... and others hosted last season... Pathfinders president Margaret (Mrs. S. P.) Manasse announced today... that proceeds from the Pathfinders black tie Fifth Anniversary dinner dance amounted to $4500... Total expenses were taken care of through contributions... with all the proceeds to be used for Pathfinders work with Palm Springs children and young people...

There will also be a more casual Sew It and Show It fashion show for the entertainment portion of the Saturday District luncheon in which Mrs. Jack Koehler will model an outfit to represent the Palm Springs Juniors...

Other members attending the meeting from the Palm Springs club are Mmes. Richard Hill, C. J. Mersch, Richard Keith, and Richard Algier, and the Coordinator from Indio, Mrs. Charles Schwenck.

County Sends Four Officials To Las Vegas

Supervisors Okeh Travel to Session On State Boundaries

Attendance of four county officials at the Inter-State Boundary Commission meeting to be held Feb. 27 in Las Vegas was authorized by the Board of Supervisors this week. The officials are administrative officer Robert T. Andersen, Assistant County Counsel James Angell, Planning Director Tyler Suess and Road Commissioner A. C. Keith.

Andersen was instrumental in getting the Colorado River boundary as it pertains to the eastern boundary of Riverside County, to be the center of the river as it now exists along the eastern end of this county.

THE COMMISSION has adopted a compromise boundary in the Yuma Island area immediately north of the city of Yuma, according to Andersen. He said it involves a boundary proposed by the state of Arizona on one hand and by the Imperial Irrigation District on the other hand.

The decision on the California border all the way from Hoover Dam to the Mexican border has been held up because of problems in the area immediately north of the city of Yuma, according to Andersen.

HE SAID HE hopes that California and Arizona members of the commission will reach a decision and have it ready for consideration of the legislatures of the two states while they are still in session for their approval and presentation to Congress for concurrence.

County Counsel Ray Sullivan remarked that one of the reasons Angell's presence at the Las Vegas session is vital is his interest in the Small Craft Harbor bill which is inextricably involved.

County Needs Welfare Fund

A request by Welfare Director John McIntyre for an appropriation from the county's unappropriated reserve fund to meet welfare needs for the balance of this fiscal year which ends June 30, was received by the Board of Supervisors this week and referred to the administrative officer to see if he can locate some unused budget allotment to lower the cut into the unappropriated reserve.

The amount requested by Mc-Intyre was $107,500. A request for some $120,000 had been recently anticipated.

"Due to the adverse economic situation this year several of the welfare appropriations are now or soon will be in distress," said McIntyre. Of the $107,500, an amount of $45,000 will go to the county's share of aid to needy children; $32,000 for subsistence; $14,000 for rent; $5,500 for travel expense; $2,000 for printing, $1,000 for clothing; $4,000 for transportation; and $4,000 for county board and care.

State Moves to Halt Burning of Textbooks

SACRAMENTO — The California legislature moved swiftly today to probe burning of obsolete books by the state Department of Education and put a halt to it.

With no dissenting votes, the Assembly approved resolutions asking for a study of the burning by subcommittee of the Ways and Means Committee and calling for an immediate halt to the burning until the legislature completes its study.

THE STUDY RESOLUTION by Assemblyman Glen E. Coolidge, R-Felton, asks a report by March 30 by the subcommittee.

Legislative counsel Ralph Kleps ruled that there is nothing in state law to require the Department of Education to burn the unused textbooks.

He said the only provisions of the law on the subject said: "The state Board of education may provide for the disposition of such textbooks are no longer in a fit condition to be used for purposes of instruction."

THE LEGISLATIVE lawyer said that another section of state law allows the state, when practicable, to sell the old textbooks for pulp paper and get the highest price possible.

Admission Tuesday that the department had burned nearly 650,000 surplus elementary school texts in the last four years brought promises of immediate legislative action from California lawmakers.

Angels Open Polo Grounds Training Camp Tomorrow

Official Welcome Sunday

The Los Angeles Angels, led by manager Bill Rigney, pitch camp tomorrow at the Polo Grounds to open their first spring training session in Palm Springs.

Opening of the spring training is officially set for 10 a.m. Sunday but due to the airplane strike, the full roster will probably not be present until Monday morning.

RIGNEY, who arrived in Palm Springs Monday to get things going at the Polo Grounds said the strike has delayed the arrival of some players a day or two.

Angel players who are residents of Southern California will be here tomorrow — some are already here — and they will go to equipment manager Tommy Ferguson who will check out supplies.

AMONG THE EARLY arrivals Wednesday was big Ted Kuszewski. Big Klu says he's in fine shape.

Rigney has a veteran group of players, 34 on his own roster, three free agents and three signed for farm clubs.

Marv Grissom and Red Kress, coaches, were also in town.

Fred Haney, general manager for the Angels who was here for the fore part of the week, was enthusiastic over the facilities at the Polo Grounds.

RIGNEY, at the outset of the training season, ranks his infield as the equal of anything in the league with Eddie Yost at third, Ken Hamlin at shortstop, Ken Aspromonte at second and Big Klu at first.

Bob Cerv heads the outfielders who include Jim McAnany, Albie Pearson, Faye Thornberry and Ken Hunt.

Rigney plans one long work out daily. The drills will continue each day until the Angels open their 26 - game exhibition schedule against the Cubs here March 11.

NEXT SUNDAY at 10 a.m. when the training season gets under way there will be a ceremony at the pitcher's mound.

It is also Photo day when the Angels will pose for shutterbugs from newspapers, news services and television.

The ceremony will include civic officials, Chamber of Commerce officials and members of the Desert Angels Committee, plus the Angels.

MAYOR FRANK BOGERT and Vice-mayor Kenneth Kirk, head of the Desert Angels Committee, the group which made possible Palm Springs' first big league training camp, have extended an invitation to all of Palm Springs to join in the welcome.

There will be free admission to everyone Sunday when Mayor Bogert, members of city council, the DAC and Chamber of Commerce meet with Angel officials at the pitcher's mound to present the key to the Polo Grounds to the visitors.

THIS WILL BE the only day that the Polo Grounds gates will be open "for free." For the balance of the six-week training season there will be a $1 per person charge for practice sessions, $1.50 per each for exhibition games with Coast League teams and $2.00 for general admission to games with other Major League teams.

First of these is scheduled for March 11-12 when the Chicago Cubs play the Angels here. Boston Red Sox will be here March 20 - 21; San Francisco Giants March 22-23 and the Cleveland Indians March 27-28.

THE LIST of signed players in the Angel fold today is 29, the latest to ink his contract being Aubrey Gatewood of Arkansas. Gatewood had a 11-8 record with Durham and Duluth last year and was obtained by draft from Detroit.

The Angels also announced the signing of Carl Muter, a 19-year-old free agent, to a Statesville contract. Muter, a catcher-infielder, hit .337 last year with Johnson City, Tenn.

Baton Rouge Open Delayed As Rains Fall

Palmer, Snead and Other Pros Hope For Practice Today

BATON ROUGE, La. — M — Sammy Snead, Arnold Palmer and about 150 more professional golfers entered in the $20,000 Baton Rouge Open tournament headed for the practice links today, waiting for the tournament course to dry out.

PGA officials postponed the first round of the 72-hole tournament until Friday, scheduling 18 holes then and 18 on Saturday, and 36 holes Sunday.

Snead, whose 275 eight years ago still stands as the tournament record, joined the PGA winter tour for a try for a second title here, and for the $30,000 Greater Baton Rouge Open next week.

Palmer, defending champion here and many other places along the PGA circuit, was trapped in Miami by the airline strike, and resorted to a private plane to reach Baton Rouge in time for tournament play.

More than 10 inches of rain fell on the Sherwood Forest Country Club's 6,700-yard course the past week, cancelling a pro-am warm-up tournament and qualifying rounds for rank-and-file pros.

No more need to buy costly lots or $20,000 homes for a few years in the sun. Here, only 15 minutes out on Ramon Road are 20 retired navy and airforce officers, doctors, dentists, engineers and business executives. Their homes range from $5,900 to $11,000 on 99 year leases of private land — the same sort of title as Stanford University and Irvine Estates, Balboa. Adults only. Wills to Hustle for Job As Dodger Shortstop

VERO BEACH, Fla. — M — Maurice Morning Wills, the National League's best swiper of bases and the Los Angeles Dodgers' highly regarded shortstop, feels strange not being treated like a rookie at spring training.

Little 5 - foot - 10, 160 pounds Maury hit .295 last year for Walt Alston's club and made off with 50 bases, but he still thinks complacency is out of line.

"I've been reading in the papers where I had the shortstop position sewed up, but I don't feel like the job is mine," Wills said. "I'm determined to hustle just as much as ever. It took me 10 years to battle my way up through the organization and I know that somebody will replace me the minute I begin coasting. This is a highly competitive game."

Houk and Dark Changing Tactics with Yanks, Giants

By FRED DOWN United Press International Ralph Houk and Alvin Dark, a pair of "on the spot" first-year managers, are wasting no time letting the New York Yankees and San Francisco Giants know that new bosses are calling the shots.

The training season hasn't even officially started but both Houk and Dark already have introduced ideas that represent a complete departure from the tactics of Casey Stengel and Bill Rigney, their predecessors.

HOUK, FACED with the problem of living up to Stengel's record of 10 American League championships in 12 years, is speeding up the conditioning of Yankee pitchers. He wants two or three of them to have pitched nine innings by opening day — something Stengel never bothered about — and he has coach Johnny Sain already pressing his hurlers to work as often as possible off the mound.

Dark, who the Giants hope will make San Francisco fans forget the bitter disappointments of 1960, announced two new ideas when the Giants opened their Phoenix, Ariz., camp Wednesday: He plans to rest Willie Mays at intervals during the season and he is going to experiment with outfielder Felipe Alou as a third-baseman.

DARK SAID he will not hesitate to let Mays rest a few days on the bench if his hitting slumps during the season, and apparently he is throwing Alou into head-to-head competition with Jim Davenport for the third-base job. Rigney, Dark's predecessor, let Mays "play his way out of his batting slumps" and regarded Davenport as an "untouchable" in his infield setup.

The Los Angeles Dodgers, who are never without a spring hero, came up with a 1961 edition in Dick Nen, a 20-year-old rookie from Wilmington, Calif., who hit several 450 - foot drives during Wednesday's workout. Manager Walt Alston announced the Dodgers will play their first intra-squad game on Sunday.

THE BALTIMORE ORIOLES staged an intra - squad game at Miami, Fla., and found the offerings of "Iron Mike" very much to their liking as Milt Pappas and Dave Nicholson each hit two homers and Jerry Walker, Art Quirk and Billy Hoelt also connected for round - trippers. The other big news in the Orioles' camp was that third - baseman Brooks Robinson checked in after being delayed several days by the airline strike.

Pitching coach Ed Lopat supervised the Minnesota Twins' workout, in the absence of transportation - plagued manager Cookie Lavagetto, and said that the 17 pitchers in the Orlando, Fla., camp seemed in satisfactory condition for this stage of the spring.

THE TWINS' chief worry at the moment involves signing pitcher Camilo Pascual and slugger Harmon Killebrew and Jim Lemon.

Pitcher Dave Sisler signed with the new Washington Senators, who held their first workout Wednesday at Pompano Beach, Fla. Only outfielder Joe Hicks remained unsigned on the Senators' 35-man roster.

Other camp notes: Ed Bouchee, 20 pounds lighter than last spring, impressed with his long-ball hitting during the Chicago Cubs' workout at Mesa, Ariz. . Barry Latman remained absent as the Cleveland Indians opened their training season at Tucson, Ariz., with 17 pitchers and two catchers.

Long and Short of It Together Tonight with Annie Farge, Garner

The long and short of it get together when James Garner does a guest spot with Annie Farge on the "Angel" show Thursday, Feb. 23, (CBS Television Network, 8-8:30 p.m., p.s.t.).

As a matter of fact, big Jim makes two of Miss Farge, with room to spare. She's only five feet tall, next to his 6 feet 3 inches; she weighs in at barely 90 pounds, compared with his 200.

THERE ARE other contrasts in their professional backgrounds. Miss Farge considers herself a child of the theater and says, "I have known no other life than acting." She entered the Conservatoire National de Paris when she was 14 and studied dramatics there for three years. Then she won a coveted post with the famed Comedie Francaise. After that came a series of starring roles in French theaters.

GARNER BECAME an actor by accident. In high school in his native Norman Okla., he was an outstanding athlete. When his family moved to Los Angeles, Garner worked for a time as a gas station attendant.

Back in California, after 14 months service in Korea, Garner ran into producer Paul Gregory, a friend from his gas-pumping days. Gregory gave Garner a job cuing Lloyd Nolan in the "Caine Mutiny Court Martial."

Then came a Hollywood movie contract and roles in the "Cheyenne" television dramas. He starred for three years in the "Maverick" Western series and appeared in several movies.

Riding on Air

AKRON, Ohio (UPI)—Cement can now float through the air with ease, as a result of a new type of hose developed by B. F. Goodrich Industrial Products Co.

The cement, in dry bulk form, travels through the hose from tank trucks to storage silos at mixing plants. A truck carrying a full load of 800 cubic feet can discharge it through the hose in less than 30 minutes.

Vietnam is developing a new source of revenue, with U. S. assistance, in the cultivation of lacquer trees. From seeds obtained principally from Taiwan, more than a million seedling trees have been grown.

DEADLINE SET FOR TEACHERS SCHOLARSHIPS

The Palm Springs Teachers' Association has announced an April 15 deadline on applications for the two $300 scholarships it will award this year to local High School graduates preparing for teaching careers.

Applications of former graduates who meet the requirements should be made to Palm Springs High School teacher Ralph Watt.

Miss Betty Stephan, member of the PSTA Scholarship Committee, announced candidates must be graduates of Palm Springs High School in the last five semesters of teaching preparation, who need scholarship aid.

Miss Stephanie Bruton Cunningham, a 1957 High School graduate enrolled at Orange State College, is the current PSTA scholarship recipient.

BUTCANE PRESENTS LIST

Deductible Expenses Told for Taxpayer Aid

(EDITOR'S NOTE: THE Desert Sun as a public service will present a series of articles on taxes once weekly between now and the tax deadline of April 15. The articles are scheduled to appear each Thursday, and will be written by R. R. Buttcane, local Certified Public Accountant.)

By R. R. BUTTCANE, C.P.A.
Taxpayers who list deductible expense where it is in excess of 10 per cent of their adjusted gross income often overlook the less commonly known deductions. The following is a list and description of some of these deductions. Child Care expenses for working mothers up to $600 per year. Union dues and contribution to union welfare fund. Accountants fees for preparation of income tax returns. Fees to employment agencies for obtaining employment. Transportation expense where it relates to medical treatment.

LOSSES FROM casualty or theft such as fire, flood or wind damage, less the amount of any insurance recoveries. Uniforms for nurses, musicians or others where the uniform is not adaptable for casual street wear. Dry cleaning or laundering of uniforms described above. Motor vehicle license or driver's license fees.

State Income tax paid to the Calif. Franchise Tax Board. State gasoline tax at six cents per gallon, provided the total cost of gasoline is not deducted as a business expense. State and city sales tax paid on taxable purchases. Alimony payments by a divorced or separated spouse, provided the manner of payment conforms to the statute.

COST OF ATTENDING seminars or conventions where the purpose is to maintain the taxpayers business or professional status. If the purpose is to attain a new or different status the expense of attendance is not deductible.

Salesmen and others who deduct travel and entertainment expense are advised to keep exact records of their expenses. The records should include such details as: Who was entertained? Where did entertainment take place? What was the business purpose? What volume of sales resulted from the entertainment? The Internal Revenue Service is now requiring proof of these deductions and is less inclined to accept estimates.

BIG STICKS TO BE ISSUED NY'S POLICE

NEW YORK — New York's policemen may not speak softer but they'll be carrying bigger sticks.

Commissioner Stephen P. Kennedy ordered the force to give up their present 22-inch-long nightsticks for batons either 24 or 26 inches long. The clubs, 1 1/4 inches thick, are made of "sound locust or true hickory."

A police spokesman said the bigger sticks had been requested by members of the force because they are "more effective."
